PLACES TO VISIT

Kirkby Lonsdale – has been described as having some of the loveliest landscape in the country. This quaint town has a market, a variety of speciality shops, 17th and 18th century inns and the fine Norman church St Mary's. Kirkby Lonsdale has Devils Bridge sited on its outskirts and is ideally positioned for exploring both the Lake District and the Yorkshire Dales National Parks. A traditional Victorian Fair is held in September every year, Victorian costumes are worn throughout the weekend and visitors come from all over the country.

Ingleton – located on the edge of the village of Ingleton are the Ingleton Falls. Experience breathtaking views as you explore the finest waterfall walk in England. Visit the longest show cave in Britain, White Scar Cave. The gushing streams, cascading waterfalls and amazing rock formations make White Scar Cave a popular attraction.

Hornby – St Margaret's parish church dates back to medieval times, however it was restored in the 19th century and displays gargoyles in the unusual octagonal tower. The main street in this picturesque village is lined with Georgian dwellings and it has a Victorian drinking fountain where a crest depicts a cat with a rat in its mouth. The story behind this refers back to the 19th century when the owner of Hornby Castle brought in a large number of cats to clear the castle of a plague of rats. This imposing castle (not open to the public) can be seen from the bridge over the Wenning.

Wray – the village has character with its cobbles, a mixture of 17th century yeoman's houses and 18th century cottages and alleys. The village was once a local textile centre with clog and basket makers, tanners and coopers, and silk mills taking advantage of the nearby Rivers Roeburn and Wenning.
