

Kickback in Kirriemuir

A hidden gem in Angus with lots of family fun.

A little town full of pixie dust, optical illusions, and rock star status.

Peek in the house that brought us Peter Pan and Captain Hook, let the kids let off steam in the Peter Pan Park. Enjoy some world-famous ice cream whilst practicing your best AC/DC air guitar.

A list of things to see and do whilst visiting Brechin:

- Visit the birthplace of the author JM Barrie and visit the desk where Peter Pan was created.
- Take a stroll down to “Neverland” the Peter Pan-themed playpark. In this pirate ship wreaked park kids can have hours of fun alongside life-size statues of Captain Hook and Peter Pan himself.
- Feeling peckish? Make use of the Peter Pan picnic area or visit the world-famous ice cream shop Visocchi's, the Top-rated café on TripAdvisor serving food from ice cream to pizza.
- Keep the magic going with a free (donations welcome) visit to camera obscura and see the magic happen before your eyes.
- Kirriemuir is the birthplace of AC/DC lead singing legend Bon Scott, give your best air guitar of thunderstruck whilst visiting the statue dedicated to him.
