

THE LAKES
CONNECTION

WINTER
2018-19
29 October - 5 April

Fabulous days out...

by bus, including
scenic open top bus rides

a great way to explore the Lake District

brought to you by

Stagecoach

hello and
welcome

getting about by bus this autumn & winter

The Lake District, England's biggest national park, is the place to visit if you're looking for a bucket full of adventure or perhaps a relaxing weekend break. Getting here by train or car is easy but when you've arrived, leave your keys because the bus is the best and easiest way to explore the region.

With comfy buses reaching far corners of the Lakes, there's still plenty to discover in the colder months when you travel with The Lakes Connection.

Our range of day tickets give you unlimited access to Lakes, just buy from your driver with cash or contactless or for the first time you can buy your ticket before you arrive. Simply download the Stagecoach bus App on your Apple or Android mobile, buy your day ticket and show the driver your activated ticket when you board the bus.

Yewdale and Tarn Hows from Coniston

Route type: Woodland, dashing becks and tranquil lakes set against a back drop of craggy knolls and distant mountains are the signature of this part of the fells and this walk brings them all together.

Grade: Time/Effort 2, Navigation 2, Technicality 2

Start/Finish: Coniston GR SD303975

Distance: 8 miles (12.8km)

Time: 4-5 hours

Height gain: 320m

Refreshments: Coniston

Maps OS Landranger 96 or 97, OS Explorer OL6, Harveys' Superwalker (1:25 000) southern Lakeland, British Mountain Maps Lake District (1:40 000)

1. Follow the A593 towards Ambleside to a YHA sign by a field with an iron fence. Turn left into the lane; the start of the Yewdale bridleway. Head north west through woodland and past the foot of the waterfall White Gill to the Hodge Close road by High Yewdale Farm.
2. Cross the road by Shepherd's Bridge, join the footpath east around High Yewdale Farm to the trees above Yewdale House. Continue north, climb a small hill then drop down to Harry Guards Woods. The path skirts the side of Yew Tree Tarn and heads north east to the side of the A593. Follow the path alongside the A593 to the junction at Oxen Fell High Cross.
3. Carefully cross the A593 to the lane that climbs south. Follow the lane uphill, past the gate for High Arnside Tarn, to a bend where a path splits off right. This is the path to Tarn Hows, follow it south to the side of The Tarns.
4. Join the access track and loop around the eastern side. On the south side climb slightly to join a road for a short distance west, turn into a car park and join the permissive path at the bottom end that heads south through the trees. Continue 600m to a hairpin bend, cross a gill, and follow the track on the other side south west down the wooded gill. A steep section follows above a beck and the gradient eases as you arrive at a road.
5. Join the B5285 for a short way and join the cycle path on the right, follow south west around the top of the lake to Coniston village

Pooley Bridge to Gale Bay

This is a linear route along the shore of Ullswater, providing superb views along the northern reaches of the lake. Two steep sections may prove difficult for solo wheelchair users.

Start/Finish: Pooley Bridge village centre bus stop
- grid ref: NY471243

Distance: 1.1 miles (1.8km)

Facilities: Public toilets, pubs and cafés in Pooley Bridge

Maps: OS Explorer Map OL7

- 1 From the bus stop in the centre of the village head towards the bridge and take the footpath on the left near the main car park entrance south past Dunmere. The wide path is well suited for wheelchairs and pushchairs. There is one gate to pass through on the way to the boathouse where there is a seat. Continue on past the boathouse and up a short but steep ramp to follow a raised path above the shoreline.
- 2 Drop down a short steep ramp and go through another gate. Cross a footbridge and follow the path to a concrete pad on your right. From here you can watch the Ullswater Steamers make their journey to Howtown and Glenridding. Looking north you can see the steep mound of Dunmallard Hill with the remains of its ancient settlement on top. This must have been an important defensive location at the entrance to Ullswater and may have been part of a line of defensive locations that were designed to repel any invader.
- 3 A rough path, unsuitable for pushchairs and wheelchairs, continues for another 150 metres to a gate and a recycled plastic raised boardwalk which gives access to the shingle shoreline on Gale Bay.

Mondays to Fridays only

Elterwater to Dungeon Ghyll

Head into the heart of Great Langdale and experience the majesty of this secluded valley.

Start/Finish: Bus stop in Elterwater Village Centre

Distance: 3.2 miles (5km) return

Time: 3 hours

Height gain: 50m

Grade: Easy

Terrain: Well way marked valley bottom track

Refreshments: Elterwater, Chapel Style and Dungeon Ghyll/Stickle Barn

Maps: OS Landranger 90, OS Explorer OL 6; Harveys' Superwalker Lakeland Central (1:25 000); British Mountain Maps Lake District (1:40 000).

From the Bus stop in the centre of the village walk down the hill and cross the bridge, following signs for Coniston. Just across the bridge, join the obvious path which heads up-river.

Follow the trail, keeping the river on your right for a short while. The path leads through some quarries and you will be able to see the luxurious Langdale Hotel & Spa on the other side.

get there
on route 516

You will meet a wooden footbridge which crosses the river and takes you up the road, past the Wainwright Inn for a short distance. You can follow this road further to enter the village of Chapel Stile for a break or catch the bus back from outside the School if you prefer. Alternatively pick up the Cumbria Way again, almost straight away, and follow this back down to the river.

Cross the river and the route will lead you by the Great Langdale Campsite and onwards to Oak Howe. Here the route splits, but keep on the Cumbria Way, following the river and skirting around the base of Oak Howe Needle.

The route strays from the river, but returns to cross for one final time, before you meet the road near the New Dungeon Ghyll Hotel. From here you can catch the Rambler back or reverse your route (if you have time). Be sure to visit one of the traditional Cumbrian Inns in the valley bottom before heading home.

A circuit of Grasmere

get there
on route 555

This woodland and meadow walk gives access to the beautiful River Rothay.

Start/Finish: St. Oswald's church, Grasmere - grid ref: NY337074

Distance: 3.7 miles (6km)

Facilities: Pubs, cafés and hotels in Grasmere, public toilets in Grasmere and White Moss Common

Getting there: Regular 599 (seasonal and open-top in good weather) and 555 bus services

Maps: - OS Explorer OL7

This map is for guidance only.

Always re-plot your route on an OS map before setting off.

- 1 Take the road from the centre of the village following signs for Ambleside and Dove Cottage.
- 2 To reach Dove Cottage the A591 must be crossed; the safest place to do this is by the mini roundabout. Follow the lane by Dove Cottage, which forks left up a hill, to join a bridleway. Head along the bridleway following signs for coffin road.
- 3 The bridleway pops in and out of the trees and dips up and down until it meets a junction with another bridleway. This drops off to the right, towards White Moss Common.
- 4 After 300m or so, just past another tarn, bear right onto the small downhill track. This leads to the car parks at White Moss Common. Carefully cross the busy A591 and access the parkland beside the River Rothay. There are toilets here.
- 5 Bear right, keeping alongside the River Rothay. Take the footbridge on the left, just before the gate into the meadow and turn right to follow the riverside path. It is narrow and relatively rough here with steep drops off the path. Go through the kissing gate and follow the cobbled path alongside the river. At the head of Grasmere lake is a small weir with another footbridge.
- 6 Keep left and follow the lake shore. Go through the gate, keep following the smooth track along the water's edge. After a while the woods to the right become fields, with stunning views across the lake. At the end of this path you turn left up to the road (Red Bank Road).
- 7 Once you reach the road, turn right heading towards Grasmere village. There is traffic on this lane so take care. There are great views back down the lake and to the fells. You come into the village on Red Bank Road, past Grasmere Garden Village, opposite St. Oswald's church.
