Welcome to your handy guide

for services in and around South Lancashire

Inside you will find...

- Information on your local bus routes and times
- Maps of the South Lancashire Stagecoach Bus network
- An overview of some great value tickets that can save you money

Did you know?

- All Stagecoach South Lancashire buses have low floors making them more accessible to wheelchair or mobility scooter users and parents with buggies.
- Children under 5 years old travel for free with an accompanying adult throughout the Stagecoach network.
- Stagecoach South Lancashire has a discounted travel scheme for jobseekers. The initiative means that holders of a Jobcentre plus Travel Discount Card qualify for half-price single and return tickets on Stagecoach buses.
- We offer free travel to guide dogs, hearing or assistance dogs accompanying those registered disabled.
- Many of our buses contain free Wi-Fi - look out for the logo on your next trip!

Codes: NC Operates on Newman College days only
PC Operates on Preston's College days only (service 68C)

Throughout the Blackpool Illuminations period (early September to early November) there are some changes to your 68 bus service. We operate a diversion route in Blackpool Town Centre in the evenings, to try and keep our buses on time. This is due to the increased traffic and congestion in and around the town. For more information please visit our website in September.
